Recent Renovations and Capital Improvements (2024)

This property has undergone a complete transformation, both inside and out. All four units were fully renovated to appeal to today's quality-conscious tenants while minimizing maintenance needs for ownership.

Interior upgrades include:

Fully renovated kitchens with granite countertops, brand new cabinets, and

stainless steel appliances

Bathrooms completely redone with new tubs, tile work, vanities, fixtures, and modern finishes

Durable LVL plank flooring installed throughout both upper and lower levels

Fresh paint, trim, and lighting updates throughout all units

Exterior and mechanical upgrades:

New energy-efficient windows and patio doors in each unit

Separate furnaces, hot water tanks, and individual utility meters per unit

Resurfaced parking lot with defined stalls

Reconstructed retaining wall for long-term stability

Updated exterior finishes to enhance curb appeal

These renovations were designed with long-term durability, tenant satisfaction, and rental optimization in mind.

Income and Financial Performance

424 Sabrina Road SW is fully leased with fixed one-year terms. All four units are currently rented at market rates, providing predictable and stable cash flow from day one. The gross rental income is $8,350 per month, or $100,200 annually. All tenants are responsible for their own utilities, thanks to separately metered systems.

Key financial metrics:

Gross Annual Rents: $100,200

Net Operating Income (NOI): Approx. $78,720 annually

Cap Rate: 5.4% at asking price

Utility Structure: All tenant-paid (gas, water, electricity)

This property offers strong investment fundamentals with minimal projected maintenance, making it an excellent asset for portfolio stabilization or long-term wealth building.

Bi-Level Design Advantage

Unlike traditional up/down duplex configurations, each of the four units in this property features a full bi-level design. This provides tenants with more usable space and a layout that feels more like a single-family home, resulting in better tenant retention and increased rental appeal. buyer will accept current RPR
